PADUCAH, KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1901.

NUMBER 125.

THEY REFUSE TO MOVE

The Miners Defy the Law and Positively Refuse to Disperse.

General Murray Notified Them and Was Told That Force Must Be Used.

A PLAY TO GAIN SYMPATHY

Nortonville, Nov. 23.—The union camp is still here. General Murray and aides, and Captains Ellis and Gordon came this morning and have notified President Wood that the military must enforce Judge Hall's order, and asked for Wood's reply. In answer Wood said "We are here and will not move or obey Judge Hall's order unless we are driven out by force." General Murray has returned to Madisonville to muster soldiers.

The Nashville American correspondent last night telegraphed: There are fully 250 men in the camp, heavily armed and declaring they will not abandon their quarters. Officials, however, do not anticipate violence. They believe the men will simply say, "Here we are, what are you going to do with us?"

Judge Hall prepared his order to Adjutant-General Murray and Sheriff Hankins directing them to proceed against the camp if not removed or abandoned and all arrangements were perfected to follow the instructions. Judge Hall declares the miners must go away and says all now hinges on their action.

President Woods and Attorney East arrived at the camp from Central City and conference were held. The number of men in camp is constantly increasing and another big bout has been raised. A heavy rain fell and it became necessary to ditch the tents, which resulted in a wild rumor that the miners were throwing up breast-works.

TO GAIN SYMPATHY.

Madisonville, Nov. 23.—It is certain that there will be no resistance on part of the strikers at Nortonville. It is practically certain that they are only waiting to be forced to disperse in order to gain sympathy.

SOLDIERS ARRIVE TOMORROW.
Madisonville, Nov. 23.—Gen. Murray will tomorrow send the militia to disperse the strikers. No resistance is expected.

BICYCLE RECOVERED.

A NEGRO TOOK A STOLEN WHEEL TO THE REPAIR SHOP.

A bicycle belonging to Captain I. O. Ford was stolen from South Fourth street a week ago yesterday. The repair shop was notified, and this morning a negro brought the wheel to Williams' bicycle shop, on South Third street, where it was recognized by Mr. Joe Heasley, an employee.

The negro claimed he bought it for $2 and had been riding it for five months. A warrant will probably be issued against him.

PADUCAH GOODS

MAY BE IN THIS LOT OF STOLEN GOODS.

Carbondale, Ill., Nov. 23.—An arrest made in this city has led to the recovery of a large amount of merchandise, supposed to be the plunder of burglaries committed in Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri. On the premises of Harry Kelly, in this city was found clothing stolen from Martin, Tenn.; jewelry from Behell City, Mo.; revolvers and outery from Wickliffe, Ky.; and goods readily identified by merchants of this city. A conservative estimate places the value of the plunder recovered at several thousand dollars. Today three sheriffs reached this city in quest of one of the men under arrest, but the suspect jumped his bond, and has not been found.

S. W. COOLEY DIED TODAY

Well Known Resident of Graves County Succumbs to a Long Illness.

Has Lived in Paducah a Few Years Ago, and Was in the Clay Business at Clay Switch.

FUNERAL AT MAYFIELD TOMORROW.

Mr. S. W. Cooley, of Mayfield, one of the most prominent men in Southwest Kentucky, died this morning at 5 o'clock at Mayfield, after an illness of over a year from a complication of diseases. Mr. Cooley had been in a critical condition for several days past, and death was not unexpected.

He was formerly a resident of Paducah, coming here several years ago from Paris, Tenn., and from here went to Mayfield to reside, and shortly afterwards struck a rich deposit of clay at what is now known as Clay Switch, near Mayfield.

Mr. Cooley was about 60 years old, and a man liked by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and three sons, Messrs. Maartee, Jesse and Henry Cooley, and two daughters, Misses Micoeva and Daisy Cooley, who are quite prominent in Southwest Kentucky society.

Mr. Cooley was a member of the Mayfield Lodge of Elks, and his funeral will take place at Mayfield at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, burial under the auspices of the Elks.

THREE SHOTS WERE FIRED

And May Belle Hudson, Colored, Was Very Seriously Wounded.

John Hamilton and Walter Lindsey Alleged to Have Had a Pistol Duel Today.

WOMAN'S INJURIES MAY BE FATAL.

May Belle Hudson, a woman well known in police circles, was shot and seriously wounded this morning about 11:30 o'clock in a pistol duel between John Hamilton and Walter Lindsey, both colored, at Phil Stephan's saloon corner Ninth and Washington streets. The trouble probably originated over a love affair, although no cause for the shooting has been given. Three shots were exchanged and one entered the woman's stomach and was taken out by Dr. Davis, colored, from the side. Hamilton was arrested by Officer Gray immediately after the shooting and locked up but Lindsey is still at large. It is thought that one of the shots fired by Lindsey struck the woman but it is not known for certain which man is responsible for the wounding. The woman was taken to her home in a nearby alley and medicines administered. Warrants have been issued for the men and Lindsey is being sought after by the officers this afternoon. Hamilton told the city hall officials that he knew nothing of the shooting and that he was, at the time the shooting was done, walking on the street and no where near the saloon.

The officers, however, have a witness who says that Hamilton was in the fight.

The affair created much excitement about the saloon and a large crowd collected about the place curious to know of the happening.

THE WEATHER.

Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday. Variable winds.

It isn't always safe to marry a girl who looks good enough to eat. A wife disagrees with a man often more than a dinner.

INTERESTING NEWS FROM THE BUSINESS WORLD

Clearings this week—$460,700. Last year—$460,141. Increase—$566. Business in all the wholesale lines is very satisfactory. The whiskey houses report very active business, with big shipments to the south and west. The shipments to Texas have, especially, been very heavy. With the grocers the season is a splendid one, with the houses as a rule doing the best business of years. The trade on holiday goods is especially good. The fuel dealers report nothing abnormal, but business satisfactory, with very favorable indications for the season. The manufacturers report heavy business in most lines, with good booking of future orders. The Thompson stock yards are doing a heavy business with some large shipments the past week to St. Louis and Louisville.

The retail stores are already beginning to put on holiday appearance. While it is a little early, some of them have displayed some of their Christmas goods, and report a satisfactory pre-season trade. The Christmas trade this year is expected to be the best in the history of the local stores, and reports from other towns are to the same effect.

The bad weather of the past few days put a stop to the building activity.

READY FOR THE CHANGE

Mayor Lang Busy Preparing His Final Report to the Council.

It Will Cover a Period of Four Years and Be Quite Voluminous—Other Preparations.

CALLING MEETING OF COUNCIL MONDAY

There will be a called meeting of the city council Monday night to consider several matters Mayor Lang desires to bring before that body, preparatory to retiring from office. At present it is not known what will be included in the call.

Mayor Lang is now busy preparing his final report, which will be presented to the council on his retirement, showing the condition of the city when he took charge, and of improvements made in the meantime, the cost of the same, and of the condition in which he leaves things. The report will extend over a period of four years, and be quite voluminous.

The council chamber is being put in first class condition for the new mayor and council, and Mayor Lang will have placed on the stone steps leading to the city hall, an iron railing, in order that his successor, Mayor-elect Taylor, whom Mayor Lang facetiously alludes to as "quite an old man," and the new council, may get in and out without difficulty. The new administration goes into office a week from Monday, and will find everything ready for it when the day arrives.

MUST GO TO SHOPS.

A NEW ORDER RELATIVE TO THE PAY TRAIN JUST ISSUED.

Trainmaster T. A. Banks has issued an order concerning all the employees of the local Illinois Central excepting the employees at the freight house, at Sixth and Campbell streets.

It seems that when the pay car arrives in the city a great many machinists and other employees of the shops go to the Fifth street crossing to receive their pay. The train is stopped at that place long enough to pay the freight house employees only and it is of a great inconvenience to Paymaster Butts to have to handle the other employees there. The order buttressed today reads that no employees of the local shops, except the freight house men, will be paid off at the Sixth and Campbell street crossing but will have to go to the shop yards to receive their money. The order also forbids the employees to ride to the shop yards on the pay train.

DR. WELDON IMPROVING.

Dr. A. J. Weldon, who was injured in an elevator accident several days ago, is slowly improving. His injuries were not internal as it was at first thought and the shock of the accident is the main source of his present condition. His physician hopes to have him out again in about two or three weeks.

FOUL PLAY IS FEARED

The Hallette's Captain Disappeared at Mound City, Illinois.

Has Started to Walk to Cairo and May Have Been Foully Murdered.

WHEN LAST SEEN HE HAD MONEY.

Captain John Ferguson, of the steamer Hallette, is mysteriously missing, and it is believed has met with foul play.

Several days ago he left Mound City, where his boat has been undergoing repairs on the ways, for Cairo. He started out to walk the distance, and is known to have had forty or fifty dollars on his person at the time.

There are many shanty boats along the bank in that vicinity, the settlement being known as "Shantytown," or "Tin Town," and it is feared he was robbed and murdered. When last seen he was walking down the railroad track towards Cairo.

His boat, the Hallette, was recently overhauled on the docks here, and shortly afterwards sank in the Mississippi river, was raised, and taken to Mound City to be again repaired.

She was preparing to leave, and has her crew aboard, all under salary and being fed, and this has strengthened the belief that the captain's long and mysterious disappearance is the result of foul play.

Capt. Ferguson is well known in Paducah, where he made many friends while the boat was on dock here. His home is at Cottonwood Point, on the Mississippi river.

HOLIDAY THANKSGIVING.

SCHOOLS WILL BE DISMISSED NEXT WEDNESDAY UNTIL MONDAY.

The Paducah public schools will be dismissed Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock for the remainder of the week. The schools are always dismissed on Thanksgiving day and as the First District Educational Association meets on Friday afternoon it was considered needless to call the pupils back for just one half day and the order was therefore made to give them an extra half holiday on this account.

The teachers' meeting which was announced for next Saturday will not be held on account of the Educational Association meeting that day. It has been postponed until Saturday, December 7.

THANKSGIVING RECEPTION.

The new home of the Friends on the corner of Fourteenth and Burnett streets will be thrown open to the public on Wednesday, the day before Thanksgiving with a reception to which everybody is invited. Donations of table linen, towels, dishes, glassware and bedding would be appreciated.

MAY DEFEAT THE FIGHTERS

The Minnesota Agitation Is Said to Have Occasioned Some Alarm.

President Hill May Retire From the Presidency of the Railroad Combine.

SOME CHANGES IN THE DIRECTORATE.

New York, Nov. 22.—According to Wall street reports, believed to be based on good authority, certain changes in the Northern Pacific directors are to be made in view of the agitation in Minnesota against the joint operation of the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern.

Influential interests in the organization of the Northern Securities company said today that while they believe that the company's plans for controlling the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern railroads could not be upset through legal proceedings, based on allegations that they conflicted with anti-consolidations laws of the different states, some changes might be forced.

It was held by these interests that there was a question as to whether President Hill, of the Great Northern railroad, under a strict interpretation of present laws, had an unquestioned right to be a member of the board of directors of the Northern Pacific railway.

The same doubt existed as to the Union Pacific, to be a member of the Northern Pacific board. It was also asserted that it was not impossible that both these officers might retire from the Northern Pacific board.

A COMPLETE REPORT

Secretary of the Philippine Commission Has Arrived at Washington.

The Document Bearing on the Case Aro—Very Voluminous It Is Said.

REPORT DELIVERED TO SEC'Y. ROOT.

Washington, Nov. 22.—D. R. Williams, secretary of the Philippine commission, has arrived in Washington, and has delivered the report of the commission to Secretary Root. The report is a very long one, covering every feature of the Philippine government. Besides the report proper, there are several volumes of appendices containing reports of different officers of the government. It is on the facts contained in this report that congress is expected to act in legislation for the Philippines at the coming session of congress. Secretary Root will give the report careful attention, and its receipt enables him to complete his report, which probably will be made public next week.

Accompanying Mr. Williams was Chas. A. Couart, who was sent to the Philippines by Secretary Root to make an investigation of and report upon the monetary situation in the islands. The information on this point which the secretary has obtained will enable him to recommend to congress legislation which will improve the present condition.

BECAME INSANE.

DEED OF AN OHIO MERCHANT ON BOARD A SHIP.

Queensdown, Nov. 23.—Thomas Halliday, a prominent Ohio merchant, became demented on board the Cymric, from Liverpool, today, and fatally stabbed his wife, then suicided.

WAS CAST IN PRISON

The Minister of War and Others on the Partisan Side Were Incarcerated.

Castro, of Venezuela, Fears a Conspiracy and His Move Creates a Great Sensation.

FRENCH CITIZENS ARE PRISONERS.

Caracas, Venezuela, Nov. 23.—Via Haytien Cable.—President Castro, believing that a conspiracy to overthrow him existed, caused the arrest at Puerto Cabello, of Ramon Guerra, the minister of war.

The president also brought about the arrest at Caracas of a number of partisans of Ramon Guerra, among them being Monta Uban, who claims to be a French citizen.

The arrests have caused a great sensation. Joachim Garklo succeeds Ramon Guerra as minister of war.

President Castro believed Senor Malon and Gen. Rolra and Jose Pietri to be concerned in this conspiracy against his authority.

HELD AS HOSTAGES.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao, Nov. 23.—Via Haytien Cable.—The arrest at Puerto Cabello of Ramon Guerra, the Venezuelan minister of war, who was elected last month to the post of second vice president of the republic, is reported here to have caused great excitement throughout Venezuela.

President Castro has enabled his representatives here saying the present revolutionary movement, which is beginning to be called the Matos revolution, has been frustrated. The truth of his statement is denied here.

A steamer alleged to have on board 5,000,000 cartridges and 15,000 Mauser rifles, destined for the use of Venezuelan revolutionists, is expected to arrive in the West Indies about the middle of December. The representatives of this revolutionary movement now here say the revolt will start after these arms and ammunition are available and that the movement will receive the active or passive co-operation of a large number of Venezuelans who, they say, are becoming tired of the existing state of affairs in Venezuela, which is characterized by Gen. Castro's political opponents as the "state of anarchy and persecution created by the Castro government."

From recent reports received here it appears that a number of inoffensive traders and citizens incapable of stating a revolution have been arrested in Venezuela at the governments orders. It is further said that these political prisoners are to be held as hostages for a premeditated forced loan by the government.

NOTHING LATE.

REPORTED THAT THE STATE BOARD MAY APPOINT A NEW COMMITTEE.

It is reported in Democratic circles that the entire county committee will shortly step down and out, and allow the state central committee to make provisions for a new committee, and thus settle the dispute over the chairmanship and secretaryship.

CHARGED WITH MURDER

COOLS TIGHTEN ABOUT POLICE-MAN SHERWELL AT EVANSVILLE.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 23.—The coroner's jury this morning returned a verdict charging Policeman Sherwell with the murder of Jennie Renner and Mrs. Bailey, which occurred the same night.

NEW PASTOR FOR UNION CITY.

Union City, Nov. 23.—Rev. W. J. Shelburne of Richmond, Va., has been called to the pastorate of the First Christian church of this city, and will move here with his family about the 1st of January.

A DAILY THOUGHT.

"If man or woman will show a fearless fidelity to their convictions, the shafts of bigotry and envy will fall helpless and harmless at their feet."

The Sun believes in opening the competition for furnishing plans for the new public library to everybody. A prominent Louisville architect who was here the other day stated that the plans for such a building could not be drawn in less than six weeks. The council committee seems to expect it to be done in two. It would also be well to require a bond of the successful architect, whenever it may prove to be guaranteeing that the building can be built for the amount the city will have to expend on it, $35,000. The new school building was to have cost about $28,000, and it finally wound up by costing about $45,000. When efforts were made to build the new fraternal building on Broadway, near Fifth, it was to have cost $10,000, but when bids were opened it was found that it would cost about $63,000. The people demand that the committee select the best plans it can get of the building, no matter where they are drawn or who draws them. If there are more sensible plans submitted by outside architects, local architects are fair enough to see that they could not expect to be given the job. And when plans are selected, the proper steps should be taken to guard against getting them of a building that cannot be built for the amount of money the city will have to spend.

Speaking of women's clubs, the federation at Cairo, which is similar to our own Civil Federation, has declared against cellars and transoms. They held a meeting a day or two ago and decided that cellars were of little use, and are too damp for safety. The transoms came up for discussion and were condemned with only one dissenting vote, as a collector of dust and dirt, and useless, as houses can be ventilated as well by opening the windows. The Cairo club devotes each meeting to some separate department. The sanitary branch held the boards at the last meeting and the philanthropy department comes next. The club is said to be doing good work, and judging from the start the one here will, also.

Miss Stone, the missionary, is still in the hands of the brigands, and unable to get any satisfaction, the diplomatic agents have about abandoned negotiations. Miss Stone has not been killed, the abductors have received no ransom, and yet there are many who do not believe that the bold action of the brigands was not only a bluff.

Paul Schilling, representing the United States consul at Zittin, Saxony, was mistaken for a swimmer and dragged from his bed at midnight, searched and despite his protests placed in prison. He was finally identified, and is now in Berlin as mad as a wet hen, demanding reparation, which will be claimed from the government by Ambassador White.

Mr. Chamberlain, the British colonial secretary, is out in a letter declaring that no sensible German can take offense at his utterances justifying the English position in the South African war. Those who did become angry, he says, will not deign to notice, and this has again inflamed the German press, and seems to anger more trouble.

Bank robbers, safe blowers, and looters of trains as well as a few bank employees continue to get in their work, judging from the dispatches from all over the country. The Democratic press will soon be charging it to the prosperity of the country resulting from a Republican administration.

It is about time some of our enterprising contemporaries were discovering another rattlesnake on Broadway or another bed of fire clay, soap stone or gold dust in some remote county precinct.

Col. Lynch, who fought in the Boer army, has been elected to parliament in Galway, Ireland. This is pretty tough on the British, but compared to their other troubles it is nothing.

There is a salt famine, because of the shortage of railroad cars. It is claimed, but this will not prevent future trips up Salt river like quite a number of people took a short time ago.

Alabama's new constitution becomes operative on Thanksgiving. There are some of the people of that state who will not be very thankful, at least for the new constitution.

SMITHLAND COURT.

THE DECEMBER TERM BEGINS IN ONE WEEK.

Smithland, Ky., Nov. 23.—The December term of the Livingston county circuit court will convene Monday week with a lengthy docket, which includes several important commonwealth and interesting equity cases. The case of the commonwealth vs. Thos. Ross, charged with murder, which has been continued for several terms, is set for the seventh day.

The case against Henry Hannon and Will Blackwell, for maliciously shooting and wounding with intent to kill, third day.

Four cases against John and Dallas Watson, malicious shooting, are also set for the third day.

The John Bulger rape case is docked for the ninth day.

For the fifth day, among others, are eight against Capt. Dan Finney, the well known towboat captain, who is charged with suffering liquor to be sold on an excursion boat between Smithland and Golconda last summer.

DEATH OF DR. FOX.

FORMER KENTUCKIAN PASSES AWAY AT WILLIS, TEXAS.

Danville, Ky., Nov. 23.—News has been received here of the death of Dr. Samuel F. Fox, formerly of Danville, at his home in Willis, Tex. His immediate surviving relatives in this state are four brothers, Messrs. Thomas, Charles and Felix Fox of Danville, and Judge Fontaine Fox of Louisville, and two sisters, Mrs. J. C. Caldwell of Danville, and Mrs. Andrew Sea of Louisville. Dr. Fox was a surgeon in the Confederate army, and later located in Willis where the members of his family, a wife and four children now reside.

POLICE COURT.

The three cases in police court this morning were continued. There was one against Fred Upshams for maliciously assaulting another, and one against Laura Owens for a breach of the peace, continued until Monday, and the robbery case against Will Morray was continued until Wednesday.

DEATHS IN GRAVES.

Mayfield, Nov. 23.—Miss Lena Curry, aged 18, died at Mayfield from heart disease. She was employed at the Merritt Pants company, and was a daughter of Mr. B. L. Curry, of Calvert City.

Miss Kate Vaughan, aged 18, died from typhoid fever near Sedalia.

LARGE CROWD OUT.

Mr. Nat G. Eaton, past grand vice chief of Car Men, addressed a crowd at the labor hall last night. He is a good speaker, and pleased all present with his words.

MAKING PROGRESS.

NEW TELEPHONES BEING PLACED IN DAILY.

The new line being extended to Louisville by the Cumberland Telephone Co. is progressing nicely, and the following stations were put in yesterday, and are now ready for use at any time: Grand River, Gilbertsville, Calvert City and Little Cypress. The gang is now at work near Kuttawa and the work there is very tedious, the building for the post office and the building for the post office and the building for the post office. The work of digging the post holes is therefore very slow, as the rock has to be cut into before the post can be erected. By next week it is thought that the station at Kuttawa will be in and ready for use.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS WIN

NEW YORK JUDGE ALSO DISPOSES OF A CHARGE OF MANSLAUGHTER.

Rome, N. Y., Nov. 23.—By a decision handed down by Justice McLaughlin one-half of the estate of Mrs. Moses M. Davis, valued at $50,000, will go to the Christian Scientists. The charge of manslaughter brought against members of the church for not allowing Mrs. Davis medical attention, the judge holds, is too weak.

ASSIGNMENT AT FULTON.

Fulton, Ky., Nov. 23.—T. H. Williams, the well known jeweler and implement man, has filed a deed of assignment for the benefit of his creditors and the two business houses on Lake street are closed.

Robert M. Chowning, cashier of the First National bank, is named as the assignee, and the full particulars are not obtainable. The schedule of assets and liabilities has not yet been made public, and until then the full amount will not be known. It is estimated, however, that the liabilities will reach in the neighborhood of $10,000, with assets about $5,000.

AN UNUSUAL OPERATION.

Metropolis, Ill., Nov. 23.—One of the most remarkable and unusual surgical operations ever found necessary in Metropolis was performed at the Metropolis sanitarium by Drs. Hazen and Trotter. A boy thirteen years of age from Johnson county seven years ago had a bad sore in his mouth which in healing united the gums and lips so that his mouth could not be opened. For two years he has been living on milk and liquid food. At the sanitarium the initial incision was made and now the boy can open his mouth as easily as any boy.

TARIFF CHANGES FOR CUBA.

Sanctiago de Cuba, Nov. 23.—Gov. Gen. Wood will return to Havana, visiting all the ports on the north coast, and then go to Washington to endeavor to secure an amendment to the tariff schedules affecting sugar and tobacco, which he says he regards as absolutely necessary.

DEAD IN HIS CELL.

Junction City, Kan., Nov. 23.—W. D. Buchanan of Troop D, Fourth cavalry, located at Fort Riley, near here, who killed Policeman Whit and Cooper on Tuesday night, was found dead in his cell today. Buchanan had committed suicide by hanging, having made a rope of a towel.

BANKRUPTCY LAW.

SOME OF THE PROPOSED CHANGES EXPECTED TO BE MADE.

New York, Nov. 23.—The National Association of Referees in Bankruptcy has about completed its investigation to learn the sentiment of business men throughout the country regarding some changes desired in the national bankruptcy law. No report can be published until the results have been turned over to the judiciary committee of the house of representatives.

It was at the request of the Hon. Geo. W. Ray, of this committee, that the investigation was undertaken. According to the Journal of Commerce, many local business men say, however, that there is no doubt that the report will indicate sentiments in favor of national as against state legislation, and also in favor of amendments to the present law in accordance with the bill prepared by Mr. Ray. A meeting of the executive committee of the referees has been called for November 30 at Birmingham, N. Y., at which a report will be formulated for the use of the judiciary committee.

Morris S. Wise, chairman of the executive committee, when seen, refused to throw shadow the report in any way. However, he said of it: "We have used a large quantity of literature and have sent a printed set of questions to some 13,000 of the most important persons, firms, or corporations engaged in commercial pursuits and representing the leading lines of business throughout the United States, and when the result of such investigation will be tabulated we will be able to form some authoritative idea of what the real sentiments of the merchants of this country on this important subject are."

GREEN GOODS.

WESTERN UNION MANAGER IN JERSEY CITY PUT UNDER ARREST.

New York, Nov. 23.—John B. Berthoff, manager of the western division of the Western Union Telegraph company, in Jersey City, N. J., was arrested in the charge that he has been carrying on a "green goods" business. The complaint was made by Chief of Police Murphy. The police have in their possession several circulars sent to the south and west, and claim they can show that the telegraphic replies of prospective victims went direct to Berthoff.

Isaac Kerstham, a telegraph operator who transmitted some of the telegrams alleged to have been received by Berthoff and gave the latter a statement against him, was also arrested on a charge similar to that preferred against the manager. He was fined $1,000 in each case.

THROAT COX.

TO EXTRACT FALSE TEETH HE HAD SWALLOWED.

Allentown, Pa., Nov. 23.—While John Angstalt, an old resident of Emmaus, was dining his false teeth lodged in his throat. Angstalt was seized with violent coughing spasms, and two doctors worked four hours in an effort to dislodge the teeth, but failed. He was then taken to St. Luke's hospital, an incision made in his throat and the teeth taken out. He is recovering.

The Week in Society.

The Doings of the Smart Set the Past Six Days.
Pleasant Events and Personal Mention.

THE BOOK OF LOVE

(Katherine La Farge Norton.)
I dreamed I saw an angel in the night,
And she held forth Love's book,
Lined with gold,
That I might read of days of chivalry,
And how men's hearts were won by
thrill of old.
Half-wondering, I turned the musty
leaves,
For Love's book counts out centuries
as years,
And here and there a page shows out
unfaded,
And here and there the text was
blurred with tears.
If read of grief, doubt, all else un-
explained,
Of many-faceted wrong, distrust
and blame,
Renunciation, bitterness of all—
And yet I wandered not beyond Love's name.
At last I cried to her who held the book—
So fair and calm she stood, I see her
yet:
"Why write these things within the book of Love?"
Why may we not pass onward and
forget?
Her voice was tender when she
answered me:
"Half-child, half-woman, softly as
thou art,
How shouldst thou dream that love is
never here—
Unless these things beat vainly on
the heart."

APPROXIMATIONS SOCIAL.

The week has been a truly gay
than the few just past, and has been distinguished by one function, the Approximations Social, which has been held at the club house. The club has not been in evidence during the week,
but all are "entirely too small to mention, you know." So we can but give you a hint as to how you can find
"wanting you" sympathies on these
"glorious interstices," and describe
them as being their whole value against a dreary quietude. They may tell you things "are awfully dull,"
but do not believe they are pinning
away; they are enjoying life immensely,
and the things one is forced to leave
out of the paper are fully as interesting—often more so—than those that go in. The coming week, beyond
the cotillon club dance, has little importance ahead. There will be some extra good things at the Kentucky, and
there are rumors of bowling parties,
but it is Thanksgiving week, also, and
there should be a pause in our writing
of pleasure to take thought for those who need our help, and to offer "the garlands of joy" for our "community service" without which we are scarcely aware how poor a thing our lives would be.

MISS MYRA DUBOIS' HONOR.

A brilliant and delightful social function was the reception-dance given by Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Dubois in Tuesday evening at the Palmer House
in honor of their daughter, Miss Myra Dubois. The reception was held in the parlor from 9 to 9:30, and the dance followed.

Palmer House balls are especially enjoyed because the dining room is the largest and best ball room in the city,
and the corridors and parlors are adapted for the promenade or
the sitting-out a dance, all of which the unusually large assemblage of society elevates that were present found to be charming features. The presence of so many of the season's pretty debutantes made it an especially interesting and notable occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Dubois and Miss Dubois were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Wheeler,
Miss Mabel Riecke and Miss Caroline

Sowell—two of the season's charming debutantes. Mr. Charles Reed, Mr.
Charles F. Riecke, Mr. Roy Miller,
Mr. Louis Riecke, Jr., and Mr. George DuBois.

Mrs. Dullon wore a handsome all-black net and silk costume. Mrs.
Wheeler wore effectively gowned in black net over silk. Miss Dullon looked very attractive in a pretty gown of white china silk. Miss Mabel Riecke and Miss Caroline Sowell, who are effective contrasts of the blonde
and brunette types, wore dainty
gowns of white organdy and ribbon.

The decorations were chrysanthemums, which lend themselves with gorgeous effectiveness to such use.
A delightful supper was served, and
music was heard during the evening.

Among the guests present were:
Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Will Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Rankin, Mrs. James Koger, Mrs.
W. F. Bradshaw, Miss Virginia Loeck-
ett of Henderson, Miss Susan Hammond of Lebanon, Marjorie Madsen of Albany, Nancy DuVal of Cincinnati,
Misses Carrie Riecke, Mabel Riecke,
Emma Reed, Anna Reed, Laura Sanders, Ella Sanders, Anne Bradshaw, Clara Thompson, Gertrude Asher,
Virginia Lash, Sadie Patton, Audie
Ashbrook, Marjorie Frott, May Terrell, Maudie Terrell, Hattie Terrell,
Mary Boswell, Anna Boswell, Jane
Rivers, Corrie Grady, Catharine Sowell, Martha Davis, Kathleen White-
head, Helen Decker, Ethel Brooks, Eugene Jorgenson, Mabel Wanka,
Lillian Rudy, Ida Leake, Alice Re-
ber, Hattie Huser, Myrtle Greer, Mary Corbett, Maudie Riecke, William
Riecke, Charles Sullivan, Abram
Weiss, Wallace Well, Ray Bailey,
George Dullon, Daw Wilcox, Rankin
Kirkland, Graham Riecke, Edith Al-
lard, Ed. Todd, Cecil Lacy, Florence Sowell, Edith Hart, Herbert Hawkins, John Sherwin, Edwin Wilson,
John Woolfolk, Everett Thompson, Gus
Thompson, Frank Boone, Charles
Boyd, Will Menden, Morton Hand,
Will Bradshaw, Jr., James Campbell, Jr., James Brooks, Maurice Nash, Douglas Nash, Vaughan Scott,
Douglas Bagby, Charles Abbott, Louis
Haga, Jr., Dr. L. B. Howie.

MUSICAL CLUB MEETING.

The Musical club has secured the lecture room of the First Christian church for permanent place of meeting, and held the meeting there on Monday evening. It was a most interesting one, and a delightful program was enjoyed. "Modern Composers" was the subject for study, and
an address on that subject was read
by Mr. Kenneth Ducky. There was a piano duet by Prof. Dodd and Prof.
Harry Gilbert; a vocal solo by Mrs.
P. H. Stewart; a vocal duet by Messrs.
Robert Chastaine and Will Green;
a piano solo by Miss Deafus, and a quintette by Messrs. Kinich, Clara Raine, Haghy, and Green, all of which were greatly enjoyed.

The next meeting will be held Monday evening, December 2, and "Sensational Composers" is the subject for study. The club now numbers forty-five members and all
are capable of taking part in the program.

Messrs. Dodd and Gilbert are organizing an annex of the club a Choral Society, for study and work in that branch, twenty members have been secured for it.

The club is making an effort to have Miss Laura Jackson the celebrated violinist come here this winter, and also, other celebrities in
the musical world; and if successful
will do a great work for the city.

MAGAZINE CLUB.

The Magazine club is famed for its pleasant occasions, but the most interesting on Thursday afternoon with Miss Ora Leigh was pronounced especially delightful, the attendance being unusually large, and it was altogether a beautiful meeting one of the best ever held. The reports showed a great amount of careful study and preparation, and were unusually fine and interesting. The Century was deligh-tfully represented by Mrs. C. E. Lin-ling, Mrs. Edward Atkins, and Mrs.
Bradford Clarke. Miss Carrie Robison
reported very interestingly from the Forum. Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips
gave with her especial charm some of the Scribner's good things. Owing to the absence of the hour, Mrs. George Flournoy on the Scribner and Miss Anne Reed on the Cosmopolitan were

omitted, which occasioned general
regret as both are interesting recontours.

CIVIC FEDERATION ORGANIZED FOR WORK

The executive board and the board of directors of the Civic Federation of Clats met in the Palmer House garden on Wednesday afternoon to complete their organization and map out
special lines of work for the members. The work was divided into five heads or committees, and the five members of the executive board were placed in charge of these departments,
as follows:

Civic committee, Mrs. Robert H.
Phillips, chairman; library committee, Mrs. Maudie Burnett, chairman;
literary committee, Mrs. B. E. Reed,
chairman; educational committee,
Mrs. Victoria Thompson, chairman;
benevolent committee, Mrs. Sol Vaughan, chairman. The club membership was divided and each assigned
to one of these departments, and all
have some specific work to do. Mrs.
Samuel T. Hubbard and Mrs. James Koger were made committee on constitution and by-laws.

PROF. DAVIS TO LEAVE.

It is with genuine regret that Paducah
has heard of the decision of Prof.
Charles Davis, the talented musician,
to make his residence in New Orleans.
He has resigned his position as organist for Temple Israel and the First Presbyterian church here, and has accepted a place with the Presbyterian church in New Orleans, a handsome new edifice with the finest organ
in the South. Prof. Davis has done much for Paducah's musical life in his residence here, and has given of his time and knowledge ungrudgingly
for her growth and uplift. The change will be a great one for him, it is a splendid recognition of his gifts,
and will bring him in touch with all
the musical life of a great city, and
his many friends here, while regretting his leaving, are glad for the higher and him. Prof. Davis is a composer who is becoming more and more recognized, and with his enlarged opportunities will, no doubt, do
some fine work.

SANS SOULE CLUB

ENTERTAINED.

Miss Mary Corbett entertained the Sans Soule club Thursday afternoon
in a most beautiful manner. Euchre was played, and the first prize, an exquisite mother-of-pearl and gold belt
buckle, was won by Miss Minnie Terrell; the best prize, a doll costume
as a court jester, went to Miss Lockett of Henderson. A charming luncheon was served after the game,
with chrysanthemums as souvenirs.
The guests were: Mrs. Will Gilbert,
Mrs. Harris Rankin, Miss Virginia
Lockett of Henderson; Miss Myra Dubois, Miss Anna Suttle, Miss Minnie Terrell, Miss Hattie Terrell, Miss Susan Jorgenson, Miss Laura Sanders, Miss Florence Yeiser, Miss Marjorie Cronkhaugh, Miss Myrtle Greer, Miss Anne Boswell, Miss Angie Thomas, Miss Mabel Riecke.

DELPHIC CLUB.

A delightful meeting of the Delphic
club was held on Tuesday evening
with Mrs. Alonzo B. Meyers. Hans Sachs, the noblest poet of Nurem-burg, and scriptural drama were the topics for discussion.

Quotations from the writings of Hans Sachs by the club were first in order. Then, in a very charming paper, Mrs. Samuel Watson told of "Hans Sachs—His Religious Writings, Popular Poetry, Master-Songs, Fertility." Mrs. John Campbell gave an interesting account of "The Influence of the Reformation Upon the Drama, and of Scriptural Drama." Mrs. Alonzo Meyers read Longfellow's fine poem
"Nuremberg" very delightfully.

Martin Luther and his work, and the "Hymn Writers of Germany" are
the subjects for next week.

AN ENJOYABLE OCCASION.

Mr. and Mrs. James Peterson Smith
entertained a "tacky party" at cards
most enjoyably on Monday evening.
The guests were all most fantastically
arrayed, and occasioned much merriment. Mrs. Charles Kiger received the prize for the most unique costume
of the evening. Euchre was played,
and Mrs. Harry McElwee won the ladies' prize, while Mr. Harris Rankin
was the victor for the gentlemen.
A delightful luncheon was served during the evening. The guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kiger,
Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McPherson, Mr.
and Mrs. Linnea Orme, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McElwee, Mr. and Mrs.

Harris Rankin, Miss Geraldine Sanders, Mr. Abram Weil, Mr. A. S.
Thompson.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mrs. Mary E. Corbett has announced
the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary E. Corbett to Mr. Arthur V.
Crary of Cincinnati, the marriage to take place January the fifteenth.

Miss Corbett is one of Paducah's
popular society girls, and is bright,
pretty, and talented. She is a member of the Sans Soule club and the Musical club, and will be much missed
in the social circles.

Mr. Crary is the district agent for the American Car company of Cincinnati, and is a prominent young business man. He and Miss Corbett met in Cincinnati two years ago when she was there attending the College of Music of which she is a graduate.

THANKSGIVING RECEPTION.

Quite an event in Paducah should be the Thanksgiving reception at the Home of the Friendless, this year
more than ever before, for it will be given in the new Home of which we are all so justly proud. When you stop to think how these few women
have pulled and what they have accomplished, there should be within us
all an impelling desire to go there and tell them what we think of them and give of our praise, our sympathy, and
our contribution as freely as we can.

The rooms of the Home of the Friendless should be crowded next Wednesday afternoon to do the occasion all honor.

A BIRTHDAY RECEPTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott, of South
Fourth street, entertained a number of their friends most pleasantly on Tuesday evening. The occasion was in honor of Mr. Scott's sixty-eighth birthday, and about thirty or more guests called to give him good wishes.
Music and dancing was the order of the evening, and an elaborate and delightful supper was served later.
Mr. and Mrs. Scott were assisted in receiving by their guests, Mrs. Robert Scott, Jr., and Miss Mattie Martin of Minneapolis.

Mr. Scott received some very handsome gifts from his many friends.

MISS MERTZ AND MISS PRIESTER, HONOREES.

Two entertainments were given on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Ethel Mertz and Miss Lillian Priester of St. Louis, who are the guests of Miss Mary Berger at Mr. and Mrs.
Fred Kamler's. A pretty dinner party was given by Miss Berger on Wednesday evening in honor of her guests. Covers were laid for sixteen and it was a most pleasant occasion.
Later Miss Carrie Rinne entertained
with a "hiltonho party" in their honor which was a most enjoyable affair.

PLEASANT EUCHE PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Burman entertained very enjoyably at euchre at their North eighth street home on Tuesday evening in honor of their guest, Miss Nellie Sharon. The ladies'
prize was won by Miss Georgiana Rogers, the gentlemen's prize by Mr. C.
Williamson; the best prize was captured by Miss Katie Donigan and Mr. Joe Cairnes. Delightful refreshments were served, and a most pleasant evening was enjoyed.

A TOKEN OF RESPECT.

The Elks' social season which was
to have been held after the minstrels
last evening in honor of Mr. Al B.
Fleiss, was called in on account of the death of Mr. Edwin B. Weil.
Mr. Weil was one of the most popular member of the Elks, and the lodge
felt no desire for pleasure. A committee waited on Mr. Fleiss and explained the sad circumstances and he quite understood and concurred in their feelings.

GRACE CHURCH GUILD.

The Grace Church Guild is arranging to have a picture display the first week in December. The pictures have been ordered from Berlin, and are very beautiful works of art. The Guild has given some very interesting
entertainments and will no doubt
make a success of this. Mrs. Brana-ford Clarke is the president of the Guild.

THE COMING WEEK.

The Delphic club meets with Mrs.
A. R. Meyers on Tuesday morning.

Miss Gertrude Asher entertains the Sans Soule club on Tuesday afternoon.

The Cotillon club will give a dance
at the Palmer House on Tuesday evening.

The board of the Home of the Friendless will receive on Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5 at their new home, corner Fourteenth and Burnett streets.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Miss Ina Asher of McLeansboro,

Ill., is the guest of her sister, Mrs.
Pendley.

Miss Ina Little of Moscow, who has been visiting Mrs. Ben Billings, returned home this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Will Whyne were among the Paducahans who went to Fulton on Wednesday to attend the opening of the new Vendome theater
that night. The "Prisoner of Zenda"
was the play.

Miss Bertha Mertz and Miss Lillie
Priester of St. Louis are the guests of Miss Mary Berger.

A very charming visitor in the city
is Miss Virginia Lockett of Henderson,
who is the guest of Miss Martha Davis,
and is receiving much social attention.

Miss Maudie Burnett returned home
this week, after a pleasant visit to Miss May Higgins of St. Louis.

Miss Myrtle Decker, who has been enjoying a delightful stay in New York City, leaves there next Tuesday,
but will visit in Columbus, Ohio, and Indianapolis before returning home.

Miss Georgia Purinton of Asheville, N. C., will visit Mrs. Elbridge Palmer during Christmas. Miss Pur-ington formerly lived here, and her friends will learn of her contemplated
visit with pleasure.

Mrs. Annie Morrow and daughter, Miss Ethel Morrow, who have been for some time with Mrs. Ethel Watts Manford in Honolulu, have returned to this country, and will be in Paducah Christmas.

Mrs. and Mrs. M. B. Nash went to Louisville this week to visit their daughter, Mrs. John J. Saunders.

Miss Elizabeth Curney and Miss
Bertha Hill are visiting in Louisville.

Mrs. Charles Kiger left today for a visit in St. Louis.

Mrs. M. E. English has returned to Madisonville after a pleasant visit
to Mr. and Mrs. James E. English
of Fountain Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Donovan went to Swallow, Mo., this week to attend
the marriage of Mr. Donovan's brother,
Mr. Peter Donovan, to Miss Alice Mc-Gerson.

Mrs. Urey Workson of Owensboro is visiting in the city.

Major and Mrs. J. H. Ashcraft left
for Louisville this week to visit Mr.
and Mrs. Harry Ashcraft. They will be gone some time.

Miss Nannie Caldwell of Carbondale, Ill., will spend the winter with her sister, Dr. Delta Caldwell.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Boyd arrived
this morning from Mexico City where they went on their bridal trip, and are at the Palmer.

Miss Mary Merrill, who is pleasantly
remembered by many Paducahans,
having formerly lived here with her relatives, General Lloyd Tighman and family, is the guest of Mrs. Augusta Langstaff on Broadway.

Mrs. Ralph E. Macduff of Flint,
Mich., is expected next week to visit
Mrs. Elbridge Palmer and the Misses Gould at "The Ferns." Mrs. Macduff is most pleasantly remembered
here by the many friends she made when her husband, Rev. R. E. Macduff, was rector of Grace Episcopal church.

Mrs. Victoria H. Thompson went to Elizabethtown this week to attend
the annual state meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs.
Thompson was the delegate from the Paducah chapter. It was quite a delightful meeting and social occasion.

Mrs. Robert Scott, Jr., and Miss Mattie Martin of Minneapolis, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
Robert Scott of South Fourth street
for several weeks, left for home today
after a most enjoyable visit. They were accompanied as far as St. Louis
by Mrs. Robert Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Eaton arrived
this week from Dyersburg, where she went to attend the annual session of the Memphis conference and remained over to visit relatives.

Miss Martha Leach, who has been
the guest of Miss May Peters of Memphis, left there this week for Minneapolis, where she will attend the Winston-Pillsbury wedding.

Miss Jennie Wire of Mayfield will be the Thanksgiving guest of Miss Mabel Riecke. Miss Wire is exceedingly popular here, where she has several times visited.

IN THE THEATRICAL WORLD

Al G. Fields, always a show unto himself was here last night with his troupe of artists, and had one of the largest crowds of the season at the Kentucky. The first part "A Day and Night at the Pan-American Exposition," was one of the most beautiful and elaborate ever seen here, and the soloists were very fine. The performance taken as a whole however was pretty much like all the other minstrels. The main difference is that Al Fields always has the best in every branch of the profession. If the time-worn and hackneyed juggling acts, acrobatic performances, and musical teams who go through the same tiresome antics between tunes, were cut out of minstrel performances, and newer and more up-to-date features substituted, people would appreciate them more. But Al G. Fields is a favorite and always gives the people their money's worth. He himself is worth the price of admission. Among his artists this season are Tommie Donnelly, Jimmy Wall, comedians; Reese Prosser, the romantic tenor, and a brother of Mr. Evan Prosser, the well known passenger agent of the B. and O. S. W.; A. C. Pringle, the basso profundo, and J. E. Hamplin, the robust tenor. The olio features are all good, and the conclusion is a dancing display seldom equalled on this stage.

Miss Henrietta Crossman, through her manager, Mr. Maurice Campbell of New York, has closed a contract with The Kentucky for the appearance of his star in Paducah Monday night, Dec. 2nd, for one performance only, and has made a concession here that he has not made in any city since the tour of Miss Crossman in "Mistress Nell" began. To quote his letter: "I expect this engagement to be capacity, and the prices will have to be under my control to this extent—the lower floor, that is, the first thirteen rows must be $1.50; the balance of lower floor, $1; the first three rows of balcony, $1; next two rows, 75 cents; balance of balcony, 50 cents, and gallery reserved, 35 cents. General admission gallery, 25 cents. In making the prices for Miss Crossman in Paducah I am making a concession I have not made anywhere this year, as in every other one night stand we have invariably charged $2 a seat all over the lower floor." The management of the Kentucky deserves the fullest patronage possible for such a star, as it is of very rare occurrence that a one night stand of the population of Paducah secures the high class attractions that come to the Kentucky. The patronage given to Kelsey and Shannon and Ota Skluner and Murray and Mack goes to show that the Paducah theatre lovers are of a discriminating character, and will patronize good attractions.

The "advance agent" is a specimen of genius home with whom the public comes little in contact. Years ago, in the palmy days, the type of man was much similar to that of the conventional sport—loud cheeks, silk hat, well oiled hair and plenty of assurance; today the representative of a first class dramatic attraction is an entirely different sort of a man. The qualities required in any well-to-do business man are about what may be found in the "agent" of today. Mr. L. G. Mercer, the press representative of Whitney & Knowles' "Quo Vadis," has a fund of anecdotes gathered from his experience, dating back many years. During a conversation with him while he was arranging for the reception of "Quo Vadis" in this city he mentioned his experience of last season in a "one night stand." The hotel at which he registered was supposed to be the best in town, and after a day's labor he was shown up to his room, which happened to be 101. Now a defective roof let in the "gentle rain from heaven," the weather being quite rainy at that time, the unobtrusive drops came drip, drip, drip on the poor "agent's" face. After a vain attempt to coerce Morphine into bestowing repose, he rose and touched the bottom; the bell boy responded. Quoth the agent, "Tell that blank landlord down stairs that I am not paying $2.50 for the privilege of being drowned out, and ask him what he's going to do about it." The reply came shortly from the kind-hearted landlord to this effect: "Tell that troupe man up there to try the other bed in the other corner, and if it raining on that I'll send him up an umbrella." We trust the "Quo Vadis" man will have a dryer time this season.

The list of plays included in the repertoire of Creston Clarke, who makes his annual appearance in Paducah Wednesday of this week shows familiarity on the part of that favorite actor with the entire range of the classic drama, from romance to tragedy.

Mr. Clarke is an actor of unusual versatility, and one of the few now in the American stage warranted by ability, training and success to appear as an attraction in roles varying so much from each other in their requirements. He has already established himself here as one of the favorite exponents of classic roles of those who visit us from season to season.

If there is anything in heredity, Mr. Clarke comes naturally by the dramatic ability he possesses, as he is the son of John Sleeper Clarke, and the nephew, on his mother's side, of Edwin Booth. Earnest endeavor, careful study and conscientious adherence to a fixed purpose have developed that ability largely, and not the least of the many things which may be said in Creston Clarke's favor is that every engagement has exhibited him as improved and advanced in his art. "David Garrick" will be presented at the special matinee Wednesday, and "Don Caesar de Bazan" at night.

"Quo Vadis" is coming to The Kentucky Monday night as a special attraction. To those who have read

laved to witness this magnificent production.

Readers of popular novels will rejoice to hear that Marie Corelli's much-talked-of novel, "The Rans," has been dramatized and will be produced by Alden Ford's company at The Kentucky on the 11th. The vision is by Chris. W. Chase, and undoubtedly destined to live a long and popular life. All of their own incidents of the book have been carefully reproduced in the drama. The players and costumes have been selected with the utmost care.

Miss Sophie Burnham who was recently made prima donna of the Wilbur Opera company, left the latter of Atchison, Kansas, and accepts an engagement with the Wilbur-Kerwin Opera company, joining them at Seattle, Wash.

James O'Neill and his mammoth company of one hundred people and seven carloads of scenery will be seen at The Kentucky on Tuesday evening, December 3rd. This promises to be a great treat.

Plays that appeal to church-goers are the prevailing stage fare nowadays. "The Christian," "Little Minister" and "Way Down East" are looked upon as the sure winners of the present season. "Way Down East," which comes to The Kentucky on Dec. 31st is said to have cleared the Pole's masterpiece of writing, there is said to be little cause for disappointment in the stage substitute. It is declared that it conveys with even more telling effect than the book, the terrible martyrdom of Christians in the days of pagan Rome, and supplies to the imagination what some minds may fail to grasp, even with such guidance as is given by Dostoevsky's marvelous descriptions. To undertake the dramatization of so comprehensive a work as "Quo Vadis" is no little task, but it is believed to have been discharged with a skill that has wholly met the requirements and restrictions of the stage, and, at the same time keeping intact and ennobling the story.

"QUO VADIS" at "The Kentucky" Monday Night.

Considerable discretion has been shown by the dramatization in avoiding lascivious episodes which the novelist utilized to his purpose, leaving the play clean of suggestion, save, perhaps, where the passion of Vindex flames for an instant from the fever of wine. This, however, passes like a flash, and as lightning clears the air, so does this searing second purify the heart of the young tribune, and fill it with holy, reverent love for Christ. Lygia Vindex declares his love early, and before this episode. The dawning of this affection is not seen as in the book. Likewise, the identity of Eunice for Petronilla is revealed in the first act, from which time forward they are in happy union with one another.

An especially organized company, selected from the best of Mr. Whitney's previous companies, 32 speaking parts, a carload of original scenery, costumes and effects. Music by Julian Edwards. Staged by Max Freeman.

The clergy of this city are cordially over $18,000 profit for Wm. A. Brady during its eight weeks' production in Boston and over $200,000 on its nearly two years' continuous run in New York City.

A quartet of shepherds, drove of sheep, three race horses, a country orchestra, a bicycle race for life, a thrilling storm effect, and objects of still life from a camera to a tollgate can be seen in "Lost River," a pastoral melodrama by Joseph Arthur, at The Kentucky on New Year's day, for one night and one matinee.

"Naughty Anthony," David Belasco's great comedy, will be seen at The Kentucky on Thursday, Dec. 5th, for the first time in Paducah.

Mr. Olio Mack and wife, Kittie Beck, and Mr. Chas. A. Murray were the guests of Manager and Mrs. J. E. English during the former's visit to Paducah Tuesday and Wednesday.

The question of make-up is one of the most serious difficulties that confronts the actor. Richard Mansfield is said to be so careful about this that he allows no one to enter his dressing room, lest they should discover his secrets. Mr. James O'Neill, who is appearing as Jesus Christ, is a past master in the art of making up. The extraordinary ease and versatility required for his part is shown when it is stated that he takes no less than five different characters during the progress of the play. Every change in features caused by privation and prison life is delicately suggested. It is a rare test of his skill in this direction.

The Murray and Mack Co. in "Shooting the Chutes" certainly surprised the patrons of The Kentucky this week. While everyone here who had never seen the show had an idea that it was fairly good, about on a par with the average farce comedy, and when the curtain was rung up on the best show of the season in its line, every one was agreeably surprised. Another remarkable thing was the big attendance the second night. None expected to see the same faces, or at least a majority of the same, that attended the opening night, at the second performances, but such was the case, and the business done was a record breaker.

Some of the younger actors of today are apt to deery the methods of so-called old school of acting, claiming that it made the play stiff and tilted in its movements. Mr. James O'Neill may be termed an old school actor to a degree, as he received his early training with such artists as the great Forrest, Edwin Booth, Charlotteushman, Adelaide Neilson, being on different occasions leading man for all these stars; thus he learned the principles of his profession in the Shakespearean and classical school. He combines with this old school manner a method of his own, which entitles him to be called probably the best romantic actor on the English speaking stage.

THE VANDERBILT INHERITANCE TAX WILL REACH THE GRAND TOTAL OF A MILLION DOLLARS.

New York, Nov. 23.—According to the World, heirs of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt, must pay $361,905.43 into the coffers of Uncle Sam. This is the total of the inheritance tax fixed by the Federal government against the estate. The decision has just been reached in Washington by Solicitor General, of the internal revenue department, and it has been concurred in by Commissioner Yetaes. News of the decision has been sent to the Vanderbilt attorneys in this city. The heirs have already been compelled to pay a state tax of $520,095. The Federal tax just fixed brings the total up to $882,001. The total expense of fighting the tax, which has been carried into the highest courts of the state and nation, will bring the grand total up to $1,000,000.

SALT FAMINE THREATENED.

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 23.—The prevailing car famine on all Southern railroads threatens a salt famine. The heaviest season of the use of salt in the South is between the months of November and March.

Local jobbers, anticipating heavy demands, have had orders at the mines since early in October, but as yet none have been filled. Saltville, Va., the chief southern point of supply, is on the Norfolk and Western railroad, which finds itself unable to supply cars to the mines in sufficient to remove the output.

The local representative of the National Salt company says the mines are 150 cars behind orders and the situation is growing worse each succeeding day.

DEEDS TO CREEK TRIBE.

Guthrie, O. T., Nov. 23.—A letter from the secretary of the Interior to a prominent Creek citizen states that deeds in severalty are now ready for the members of the Creek tribe, and will be issued at once to 4,000 citizens, to the amount of 230 acres each. The remainder will be issued at the rate of 1,000 deeds a week until all the lands are divided. These lands may be sold to whites after being decided, with the consent of the Interior department. There are 14,000 allotments in the Creek nation.

WILL REMAIN UNTIL JANUARY.

Prof. Charles Davis, organist at the First Presbyterian church and Temple Israel, has consented to remain here until the first of the year. He leaves tomorrow night for New Orleans to play at the dedication of the church of which he will be organist. His many friends hope he will yet consent to remain here.

BEN HUB, ST. LOUIS.

November 18 to December 9. For parties of ten or more desiring to witness this performance, the Illinois Central Railroad company will issue round trip party tickets at one and one third fare, good returning for three days from date of sale. Remittances for seat reservations can be made to Mr. P. Short, Manager, Olympic theater at the following rates: Down stairs, $2; first seven rows balcony, $1.50; remainder of balcony, $1; gallery, 50 cents.

CAUSE OF DEAFNESS.

THE MOST COMMON CAUSE OF DEAFNESS RECENTLY DISCOVERED.

It has been stated on good medical authority that nine-tenths of cases of deafness are caused from catarrh or from sore throat trouble.

The little tube which leads to the ear from the throat is lined with a sort of velvety structure called mucous membrane. This membrane is simply a continuation of the mucous membrane lining the throat. When disease of any sort attacks the mucous membrane of the throat it is very liable to extend into the Eustachian tube and up into the ear.

The history of nearly all cases of deafness is like this: A cold is contracted and neglected, other colds are taken, the throat becomes sore and inflamed, which is aggravated by particles of dust and germs from the air. This condition causes the disease to spread into the tubes that leads to the ear.

It seems a little far fetched to say that most cases of deafness are caused from catarrh, but it is certainly true, and anyone who has had a severe catarrhal cold must have noticed how the hearing was affected while the cold lasted.

With catarrh sufferers this impairment of hearing becomes chronic and grows worse the longer the catarrh is neglected.

You can cure catarrh and deafness by the regular use of an excellent new preparation called Stuart's Catarrh Tablets composed of anti-septic remedies which act both on the mucous membrane but principally and most effectively on the blood, eliminating the catarrhal poison from the system.

People whose hearing is defective may think it a little remarkable that a simple and harmless tablet would very often remove all traces of deafness, but when it is remembered that catarrh is easily cured by the regular use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets there is no mystery about it.

If you are subject to nasal catarrh or catarrh of throat, bronchial tubes or catarrh of stomach and liver, the safest and most effective treatment is the new catarrh specific, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, sold by all druggists at 50 cents for full sized package.

PARTICULARS

Of the Two Boats Which Sank Yesterday.

The Fritz Went Down Above Memphis Tenn.—The Knoxville at Yazoo City, Mississippi.

The Memphis Commercial-Appeal today says: The same obstruction that claimed the Fred Hartweg has secured another victim in the towboat Fritz, which left Cairo Wednesday for the purpose of assisting in the raising of the Hartweg. The accident took place yesterday morning at 6 o'clock, sixty miles north of Memphis. The Fritz had on board a wrecking crew and an expert diver, and expected to make short work of the saving of the Hartweg, but she ran aground on the self-same log that sent the Hartweg down before she could even get to the sunken craft she had started out to rescue.

The Fritz was one of the Cairo boats belonging to the coal combine. She was three or four years old and was worth something in the neighborhood of $15,000. It was reported that the boat was only in about ten feet of water and was lying perfectly straight, so she can be easily raised in event the next boat does not run into the same log and make the proverbial third of river accident superstition.

It is stated that the Fritz will be raised this afternoon, while the other boat will probably be raised shortly afterward. The Fritz was commanded by Commodore Max Sebott, the chief of the coal combine's fleet, an officer who is thoroughly in touch with the profession and who has the confidence of the owners.

A dispatch from Yazoo City, Miss., says:

The P line steamer Reese Pritchard struck a snag this morning at 9 o'clock a mile and a half from Welch's camp, and sank in ten feet of water. She had on board 1,500 sacks of cotton seed and one bale of cotton, belonging to the Belzonia oil mills. W. D. Pugh, president and manager of the company, will leave here in the morning with divers and crew, and make an attempt to raise the boat. He may succeed if the water does not rise too fast. The Pritchard was valued at $12,000, and was insured for $5,000.

The steamer City of Knoxville, of the People's Transportation company, also lies on the bottom of the Yazoo river, near her landing in this city. She struck a snag yesterday afternoon at Short creek and went down about dark, just after reaching here. She contained a good cargo. It is believed she can be raised.

MOTHERHOOD.

Munford, Tenn., Oct. 3, 1900.

I am a great believer in your Wine of Cardui and Theford's Black-Draught. My wife took one bottle of Wine of Cardui last winter and when her baby was born she had an easy time. My wife and I think your medicines are the best we have ever found.

W. F. RHODELANDER.

Motherhood is the great aim of womanhood, but all the natural sentiment which clusters around it seems cruel mockery to thousands of suffering women to-day. To them motherhood means only misery. But women need not suffer agony at childbirth.

WINE OF CARDUI

makes women strong and healthy by regulating the menstrual flow and strengthening the organs of womanhood. A strong woman looks forward with joy to the coming of her child. Women fear motherhood because they are sick. Weak organs cannot withstand the strain without great pain and danger. Wine of Cardui has relieved 1,000,000 women who stood in terror of meeting woman's responsibility. It equips woman for every duty of wifehood and motherhood. When Wine of Cardui is used it can truly be said, "mother and child are doing well." Ask your druggist for a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui.

—An unknown white man, too drunk to give his name, was arrested by Lock-up Keeper M. Nease and Officer Weinbrecker this afternoon for being drunk.

ACCUSED ESCAPED.

HE WAS WANTED FOR SEDUCTION, BUT GOT AWAY.

Deputy Sheriff Ogilvie last evening went to the home of Charles Johnson, near Massac, to arrest the latter on a warrant taken out before County Judge Emery for alleged seduction, Mary Rushing being the plaintiff. The young man, as soon as he learned the officer's mission, made a dash for the door and succeeded in escaping. He is reported to have remained in the neighborhood only long enough to say he wasn't guilty.

A sister of the girl who swore out the warrant has preferred a similar charge against a Graves county man, who has not yet been arrested.

About Your Coffee.

Are you "cranky" about the quality of the coffee you drink? Want it just right in strength and blend? Just right for flavor and aroma? If you are that kind of a coffee drinker, you're just the person we want to see, for we can suit you better in coffee than you have ever been suited—and the price won't be a bit more than you have been paying either. Come in and see us—we're "coffee cranks" ourselves.
